

---

Projects

---

The Charles University also focuses on jointly funded projects, for example, within the framework of the CENTRAL Network and Joint Seed Funding with the University of St Andrews. The aim of these activities is to strengthen cross-border research collaboration, enable joint projects, publications, and events, create new research teams, support early-career researchers, and establish an environment conducive to an academic career.

